Badly Burned.

On last Friday afternoon, William Long, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Long, of this place, was badly burned at Stonegap while repairing an engine of an automobile. In some way the gasoline ignited and before he could escape the flames his hands and legs were severely burned.

He was taken immediately to the Stonegap Hospital where he received medical attention and later brought to his home here, where everything possible is being done for him and at this writing it is thought he is some better. His many friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

Often the man who never lends nor borrows hasn't the ability to do either.
